

Cominform elements in Felerade are still acting with prudence but liming their pockets with surey that Russian agents are lavishing on any scheme, no matter how for-fetched, that may provide information on Tito end the Vugoslav Government. Double agents are now "a la mode" on both sides. However, is one has been able to offer an explanation as to why known foreign communist agents have been allowed the freedom of Belgrado, with scarce, any visible interference by the UDB.
